EXPERIENCE

Brand Project Manager L5 (Senior Program Manager equivalent)

X / xAI

July 2023 – March 2026

- Led Custom Tech Production for X's internal Lab across the US, Mexico, Brazil, and broader LATAM markets — scaling from 42 to 80 projects annually at peak, delivering 193+ projects over 4 years, and contributing to $100M+ in custom production revenue and $135M in total closed revenue in 2025 alone.
- Negotiated vendor contracts across all regions over 5 years, consistently maintaining Cost of Goods (COGs) under 5% — outperforming the company's 10% target by 2x and generating significant cost savings across the full production portfolio.
- Drove end-to-end execution of 10–15 concurrent custom technology projects for X's internal Lab — managing an average portfolio value of $5M–$15M per cycle, with a 100% on-time delivery rate across all scope, timelines, roadmaps, and resource requirements.
- Coordinated cross-functional delivery of custom content production formats and tech rollouts for major enterprise clients — including PepsiCo, Netflix, ViX, McDonald's, HBO, Lionsgate, and Michelob — across US, Canada, and LATAM, ensuring cohesive outcomes, quality, and timely execution while mentoring 3 junior team members in program management best practices.
- Built and maintained proactive partnerships across 7 internal teams — Sales, Client Success, Content, Technology, Billing, Compliance, and Policy — driving revenue optimization and increased client investment through unified go-to-market alignment, regulatory compliance, and a seamless service experience that strengthened long-term client relationships.
- Leveraged xAI to deliver real-time, tailored content and formats at scale — driving lower cost per engagement and lower cost per impression, and demonstrating the measurable business value of AI-driven audience experiences over traditional advertising models.

Brand Project Manager L4

Twitter

May 2021 – July 2023

- Managed full lifecycle relationships with 4–7 external production vendors across LATAM and US markets — streamlining onboarding by several weeks through structured selection, compliance verification, and performance tracking processes, ensuring reliable timelines, cost efficiency, and seamless integration into scalable custom content production workflows for major enterprise clients.
- Tracked and reported financial performance across a $250K regional budget spanning 4+ LATAM markets (Mexico, Brazil, Miami, and broader LATAM) — maintaining consistent under-budget delivery through disciplined expenditure monitoring, accurate budget tracking, and data-driven project decision-making.

- Led team huddles and brainstorming sessions to generate and pitch innovative, disruptive ideas tailored to the LATAM market, while ensuring full alignment with X's guidelines and policies.

Senior Project Manager

Ogilvy Miami

Mar 2019 – May 2021

- Led American Express IDC account in Latin America, Spain, and Switzerland — managing regional strategy execution to reach the 3 marketing pillars of the account: spend, retention, and acquisition. • Produced 50+ email marketing campaigns annually — including 4 monthly brand communications and recurring special event emails — to strengthen regional brand positioning across entry and premium product portfolios. • Owned the client budget, managed costs and deliverables as well as staffing resources.

Marketing Coordinator

J.D. Mellberg Financial

Feb 2017 – Mar 2019

- Managed and coordinated email marketing activities and campaigns through Marketo and Google Ads. • Negotiated, purchased, and monitored advertising media space and airtime to reach the highest number of people in the target audience at the lowest possible cost.

Online Specialist

Google

Nov 2014 – Feb 2017

- Supported 15–20 B2B and SMB clients daily across Google Ads, Analytics, and Merchant Center — completing 250+ hours of product training and recognized for exceeding goals in customer service, quality, and productivity.
